ICT Mahidol organized an online “Dhamma Listening: 4 Things That are Hard to Obtain”

On 23 November 2021 - the Faculty of Information and Communication Technology, Mahidol University (ICT Mahidol) organized an online “Dhamma Listening: 4 Things That are Hard to Obtain” for its executives, instructors and staff via Webex Meetings. The session was conducted by Phra Maha Pichet Kanat Chet Tho, the 9th grade Buddhist Theology Achiever, and Vice Abbot of Wat Luang Pho Sot Thammakayaram, Damnoen Saduak, Ratchaburi Province. The activities during the session included worshipping the Holy Triple Gem, receiving the five precepts, listening to the Dhamma, pouring water of dedication, and receiving blessings from the monk.

The activity, “Dhamma Listening: 4 Things That are Hard to Obtain” was one of the Promoting and Preserving Buddhist Cultural Heritage Activities which aimed to improve the participants’ morality and ethics on life, to encourage them to live a balance life, and to build an ethical society within the Faculty.
