

Activity News

ICT Mahidol student received an award with an honorary plaque for the “Outstanding and Ethical IT Student” in academic year 2020

On 29 October 2021 – Miss Pucharimon Arunpunporn, 4th year student of the Faculty of Information and Communication Technology, Mahidol University (ICT Mahidol) received an award with an honorary plaque for the “Outstanding and Ethical IT Student” in academic year 2020 from the Association of Council of IT Deans (CITT). During the ceremony, Dr. Sunanta Sodsee, President of the Association of Council of IT Deans (CITT) served as host who presented all awards to students via Webex Meeting.

The “Outstanding and Ethical IT Student Award” is granted to university students in the field of Information Technology. Important students’ qualifications include sacrificing, management skills, working with others, visibility, and academic performance.

The “Outstanding and Ethical IT Student Award” is an award given to university students according to the resolution of the Dean of the Faculty of Information Technology of Thailand. The objective of this award is to honor students who morally and ethically apply their knowledge and skills in IT to benefit themselves, society and the nation.

Photo Credit: Facebook Page: The Association of Council of IT Deans (CITT)

Source: <https://www.ict.mahidol.ac.th/outstanding-and-ethical-it-student/>