- October 27 - 28: China National Convention Center (CNCC), Beijing

On this occasion, the representatives from Mahidol University received a warm welcome from the Yunnan Around Asia International Education Center (YAAE). The Mahidol University booth garnered substantial attention from students, parents, and agencies. Many visitors inquired about curriculum information at both undergraduate and graduate levels, teaching and learning management formats, program durations, and short-term programs. They also sought information related to studying in Thailand, including visa application procedures and the international atmosphere of the university. Furthermore, various foreign universities and educational organizations expressed interest in potential academic collaborations with Mahidol University.

The China Education Expo (CEE) is an annual event organized by the China Education Association for International Exchange (CEAIE), starting in 2000. It is widely recognized as a significant educational exhibition, featuring pavilions from over 20 countries and over 600 universities and institutes from 40 countries worldwide. This event attracts more than 60,000 attendees.
